What clients across multiple audio industries are saying about Lauren Synger & The Voice Sphere

Video Games

"The brilliance and talent of Lauren can't be understated. Her devotion to a project and her overwhelming ability to hit the nail on the head with every performance makes her a dynamite person to work with. Lauren brings not only vocal excellence, but constructive, exciting additions to the project itself. She is a character, a collaborator, a performer, a singer, a writer, a director, and a friend. Working with Lauren is like bringing on one of the family."

"Working with Lauren is amazing. Not only is she a master of so many trades, she is the most positive, easy to direct and malleable person I know. She is always willing to go the extra mile and help whether it be to figure out scripts or try out for parts she never thought about before---all with a smile and never a complaint. This is a person you want on your side, your team and your payroll!"

— Lani Minella, Voice/Casting Director

"Whenever I commission Lauren to work for us (in voiceover and music), I know I am going to get a professional actor and singer. She's got great range and a fantastic ability to bring life to the pieces she is working on. She is our go to singer when we need a performer as she provides top-notch material. Her passion and hard work for the product placed in her hands, makes her irreplaceable. You will need to look far and wide to find someone as versatile and passionate as Lauren Synger."

“Lauren Synger and the Voice Sphere have been an absolute blast to work with. Lauren not only provided the voice for Sarah, but she also has acted as Creative Consultant, Voice Director and Casting Director for my original animated short, “Dusk’s Flight”.

Lauren was on top of it, not only did she provide her own voice, but she introduced me to a handful of talented voice actors and audio producer/sound designer for my project, they have all done a tremendous job making the short sound amazing.

She’s also someone that is genuinely interested in the project and learning about it just so she can deliver the best service for it. She would advise against certain choices I had in mind, all coming from a good place - while respecting my decisions and promoting some great ideas to make projects feel tight. It felt like I didn’t have to carry the weight of everything for the project, as she was handling most of the note taking, reassessing goals, and making sure everyone involved in the audio department were all on the same page.

A big thanks to Lauren because she has been the one who has been guiding me through the process and finding the right people to work with.

I don’t think Dusk’s Flight would have ever been done in the quality it is right now without Lauren’s involvement. The experience With Lauren and the Voice Sphere has changed my overall approach to film making in general, and how working with a community that cares is much more worth it than doing everything by yourself.

I would love to work with Lauren and the Voice Sphere once again for future projects. It was definitely a life changing experience, and I would highly recommend them for any project that needs audio work.”

“Lauren Synger & her studio Synger Productions has been a valuable asset providing the voice talent for our client’s radio spots. She has been accommodating, patient and always more than pleasant to work with. Even on short notice, Lauren responded quickly and delivered quality work that satisfied all our client’s requests. She made our job as an agency easier, and we’d recommend her to anyone seeking a professional voice actor with an upbeat, professional attitude to match.”

“Lauren provided exemplary service on our recent radio campaign. She provided the full package: voice talent, sound effects, music bed, and production. She performed wonderfully under extreme deadlines and multiple script revisions. With her calming demeanor she constantly reassured me that we would meet our deadlines no matter what challenges arose, and we did. I would highly recommend Lauren Synger as a voice talent and her production studio Synger Productions.”

E-Learning

"Lauren Synger and The Voice Sphere has become our company's go-to studio for all our voiceover needs. Lauren has always been extremely responsive, and super professional. She and the team have blown me away with their professional sound and quick turnaround times. They have always been able to get us the final produced audio files within our timelines, even when we're on tight schedules without much lead time. Lauren and team are easily coachable and can deliver any type of sound you are going for with the right prompts, whether the recording sessions are live or self-directed.

One project we worked on with the Voice Sphere and the Alzheimer's Association won a Gold medal at the International Serious Play Awards in 2023. I have no doubt that the polished voiceover within the project played a big role in our success! This project had very particular sound needs, so we took advantage of live recording/directing sessions so that Lauren could nail the tone. This was a seamless and fun process, and we were able to complete the recordings in just a few sessions.

Another project for the USPTO called for a specific "southern belle" sound from Lauren, and she recorded on her own and nailed it on the first try. Our clients loved it!

There hasn't ever been a voice or sound that the Voice Sphere team couldn't provide us with- including children and elderly voices. I highly recommend choosing the Voice Sphere for all your voiceover needs! 10/10 in professionalism, customer service, quality, and timeliness!!!"

"Lauren is quickly becoming our "go-to" for voice overs. She is on our very short list of dependable voice talent, because she continually delivers quality work on both our longer-term projects and on projects with extremely tight deadlines. Lauren is a true professional who is knowledgeable, dependable, efficient, and affordable. I'm always happy to work with Lauren, as she consistently performs at the highest level. I highly recommend Lauren Synger to anyone looking for superb voice talent."

Audiobooks & Narration

"Lauren Synger has been one of Full Cast Audio's most versatile performers, with voice characterizations ranging from small, squeaky creatures to luscious leading ladies. Lauren is both a dynamic reader and a fearless actress, never afraid to push to the outer limits of what a character is feeling. We love working with Lauren and can't recommend her highly enough!"

– Bruce Coville, Author/Founder & Owner,
Full Cast Audio

"Lauren Synger is a joy to work with. Her range as a character actor is wonderful--from sweet ingénue to hippie earth mother to cynical, charismatic, many-layered despotic ruler. And not only is she amazingly versatile as a voice actress, but she is a consummate professional, there when she says she'll be there, on time and ready to work!"

– Tamora Pierce, Author

"Recently I had the pleasure of working with Ms. Synger as a voice artist we hired to read a short story produced by our weekly audio fiction magazine, the Drabblecast. Ms. Synger was exceptional in all regards. She was easy to reach, timely in her responses, and performed the role with flair and panache. Here are some audience responses from within just the first week—

"I can't even begin to tell you how impressed I am with the narrator's skill at saying the groom's name (alien name, very difficult to pronounce.) In fact, the narrator was all around stunning..."

– Dreamrock

"I'm going to have to practice saying the groom's name. Very impressive. Superb Voice acting. I really hope we hear from her again..."

– Mr. Shadowboxer

"Very entertaining. Lauren Synger did a top notch job narrating. Hard to beat."

– TBaker

"Awesome, Lauren's narration made that story for me."

– Phenopath

Audiobooks & Narration Contd.

"I agree, tremendous charisma in the lead role. If Norm takes a narration break, he sure doesn't skimp on the sub. And he's got mega-shoes to fill, so that's saying something. Again, another great, solid non-Norm read, maybe the BEST."

– Richmazzar

"This may be one of the best read Drabblecast ever. Excellent voice acting."

– Moonowl

"I would highly recommend Ms. Synger to others seeking superlative, versatile voice work for story-telling projects. She was a delight to work with and exceeded our very high expectations."
